FOREWORD . . .

Another year has passed – a year to be remembered. 1967 began a new era for our Alma Mater, new classrooms, assemblies in the gym, a double lunch line, a larger student body, an increase in faculty members – This is progress. At first the adjustment was difficult with the crowded classes in the student lounge and teacher dining room, but we overcame these quickly. We must keep pace with our changing times!

DEDICATION

Yearbook Dedication

Hastings, Mrs. Bernice

Yes, Virginia, there is a Mrs. Hastings. Not every school, however, is as lucky as Colonel Richardson to have such a devoted librarian. Always cheerful and willing to help, Mrs. Hastings has served as advisor to the yearbook and school newspaper staffs, and has taught English and Journalism, besides maintaining her position in the library. Her cooperative spirit and unselfish giving of time for all school activities, her keen insight, and sympathetic guidance in student problems cannot go unnoticed. Yes, Virginia, there is, indeed, a Mrs. Hastings.

It is with great pleasure and deep gratitude that the students of Colonel Richardson dedicate the 1966 - 67 LeSabre to Mrs. Bernice Hastings.

"There are limits to human endurance, but few of us drive ourselves to anything like our full potential unless powered by a big goal" – Father James Keller.

To dream, to plan, to aspire, to build, to work, to achieve – these are all fundamental ingredients of progress. We have progressed during our five years in our new school. Enrollment has risen from 319 pupils to 620, faculty members from 19 to the present 31 1/2, and our physical facilities have been increased by eight classrooms. Our program of studies have been expanded to include an additional five vocational courses. These things have come about in the past five years as physical evidences of progress. The question of primary concern is "How has this progress affected you? Are you availing yourselves to the opportunities afforded you?" No amount of buildings, programs and materials are worth anything if they are not being used advantageously by the students. It has been said that the man who doesn't read good books has no advantage over the man who can't read them.

Avail yourselves the opportunities at hand and join in the progress with us. Remember our slogan – Colonel Richardson High School – a modern school plant invites all who will learn.

JUNIORS,

As I write this letter, I think of how swiftly this year has slipped by. For soon our class will enter the world to become responsible and respectable adults. This thought frightens us because now we are about to face the real challenges of life. It is the days of our high school career which are the growing-up and learning days, not afterwards. Our senior year is the final year of preparation for our future. As seniors we hope that we have fulfilled our part, and that the class of '67 will always be remembered.

In body and in mind, the juniors and seniors are competitors, but at heart, are the best of friends. It is for this reason that it is difficult for us to say good-bye. We wish you the best of luck next year as seniors and leaders of our school.

Sincerely,

Dale M Harrison

President Senior
Class

SENIORS,

At last the time has come when you can look back and think how quickly the years have passed, especially the ones in high school. Soon you will be entering a new life, an independent life, into a vast world of many opportunities.

Your class has been a great one, and when you leave, you will take much from our school. To express all the good times we've had together in and out of school would be impossible. Of course, there was competition between us, but competition is a necessary part of any society. The classes together, the meetings, the arguments, the dances – these will always be remembered by our class.

On behalf of the Junior Class, I want to thank you for all these wonderful memories and wish you the very best of luck for future success.

Sincerely,

Gina Dekweider

CLASS MOTTO

"Knowledge comes, but wisdom lingers."

COLONEL RI

The Honorable

U. S. Senator

Graduation Speaker

CLASS

CLASS SONG '67'

The years have slipped away and now our time draws near
To part from high school ways and friends we hold so dear.
Our proms and parties, trips and teams are of the past,
But as the future flees, to us they'll still be mem'ries that will last.
We've found that "knowledge comes but wisdom lingers" on
From happenings in which we have both lost and won.
All helped to mold us into what we are today,
Awaiting this, our graduation day.

CHARDSON HIGH SCHOOL

OF 1967

We stand here all together to again unite
Before we go our separate ways after tonight.
If we with resignation leave, its time to know
We must go forth with willing hearts and open minds where souls can grow.
Whate'er the future brings---if it seems good or bad---
We'll keep on striving higher never to be sad.
Keeping this in mind, our miseries will fade away.
Remember this, our graduation day.

Words and music by Rebecca Merriken

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1967

The magnificent class of '67, in a dippy state of mind and a swinging spirit, do leave to the deserving underclassmen of Colonel Richardson High School our cherished mementos of the years gone by.

JEAN ADAMS leaves her books and the lunch room to the school.
WILLIE ADAMS leaves his track ability to anyone who needs it.
BILL BAKER leaves his fortunes to Faye.
WILLIAM BARRETT leaves his ability to get along with others and his smile to Marvin Nichols.
KATHY BECKER leaves all the wild car pool rides to Kay Davis to use next year.
EARL BELL leaves his ability to sneak to the other end of the floor in Phys. Ed. to Larry Harrison.
TYRONE BEULAH leaves his space in the school parking lot to anyone who has a car small enough to fit it.
GARY BREEDING just leaves.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council sponsors Antrim Bureau Assembly.

The Student Council has continued to help make the school year a successful one. Under the guidance of their advisor, Mr. Davis, the council worked to better serve the student body.

Again this year the council sponsored the Christmas dance, a Christmas decoration contest, the White Christmas drive which was in cooperation with the Honor Society, a talent show and various other assemblies. Throughout the year they also maintained the bookstore and sold concessions at numerous home games.

This year a steering committee was formed by the Student Council, where student problems were brought before the group. Solutions were sought which they felt would improve student relations throughout the school.

Adding to Colonel Richardson's scholastic spirit is the Altiora Petite Chapter of the National Honor Society. Each spring a committee of teachers chooses sophomores, juniors, or seniors who possess outstanding qualities in the areas of scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

An active club, the Honor Society often participates in cultural activities, co-sponsors White Christmas, and sells concessions at various school events.

Future Teachers sponsor Homecoming Pep Rally.

The Future Teachers of America accents their members' interest in education, their desire to teach, and their service to the school. The monthly meetings are highlighted by talks, given by various speakers, concerning education.

The club was proud to sponsor all Homecoming activities, the parents' school visitation, and National Education Week when all the teachers were given an apple. Their future activities will include — sponsoring a babysitting service for P.T.A. parents of elementary school children, the annual student teaching program, where the senior club members journey to the grade schools to trade places with the regular teachers, and the final activity which is the induction of new members.

Field trips, such as the one to Salisbury State College, give the students a fresh look at college life as well as a look toward their future goal of teaching.

The Future Business Leaders of America, now members of the National organization, continue to have a very active club at Colonel Richardson. Members have attended state workshops and have submitted news to the state newspaper. The monthly newspaper, LA VOYAGER, published by the business department, highlights a long list of projects for the year.

The club is growing, and they have an ultimate goal to bring all business students into the organization.

The girls are busy selling concessions to hungry Homecoming fans.

FUTURE NURSES

Having only been formed a year, the Future Nurses Club has now received its state charter. They have sold concessions at home ball games and have planned a bake sale in February.

They have now acquired enough money in the treasury to buy club charms for all of their members. The future Nurses Club members are planning to take first aid courses which are given by our county Health Department. Since its formation the club has accomplished much.

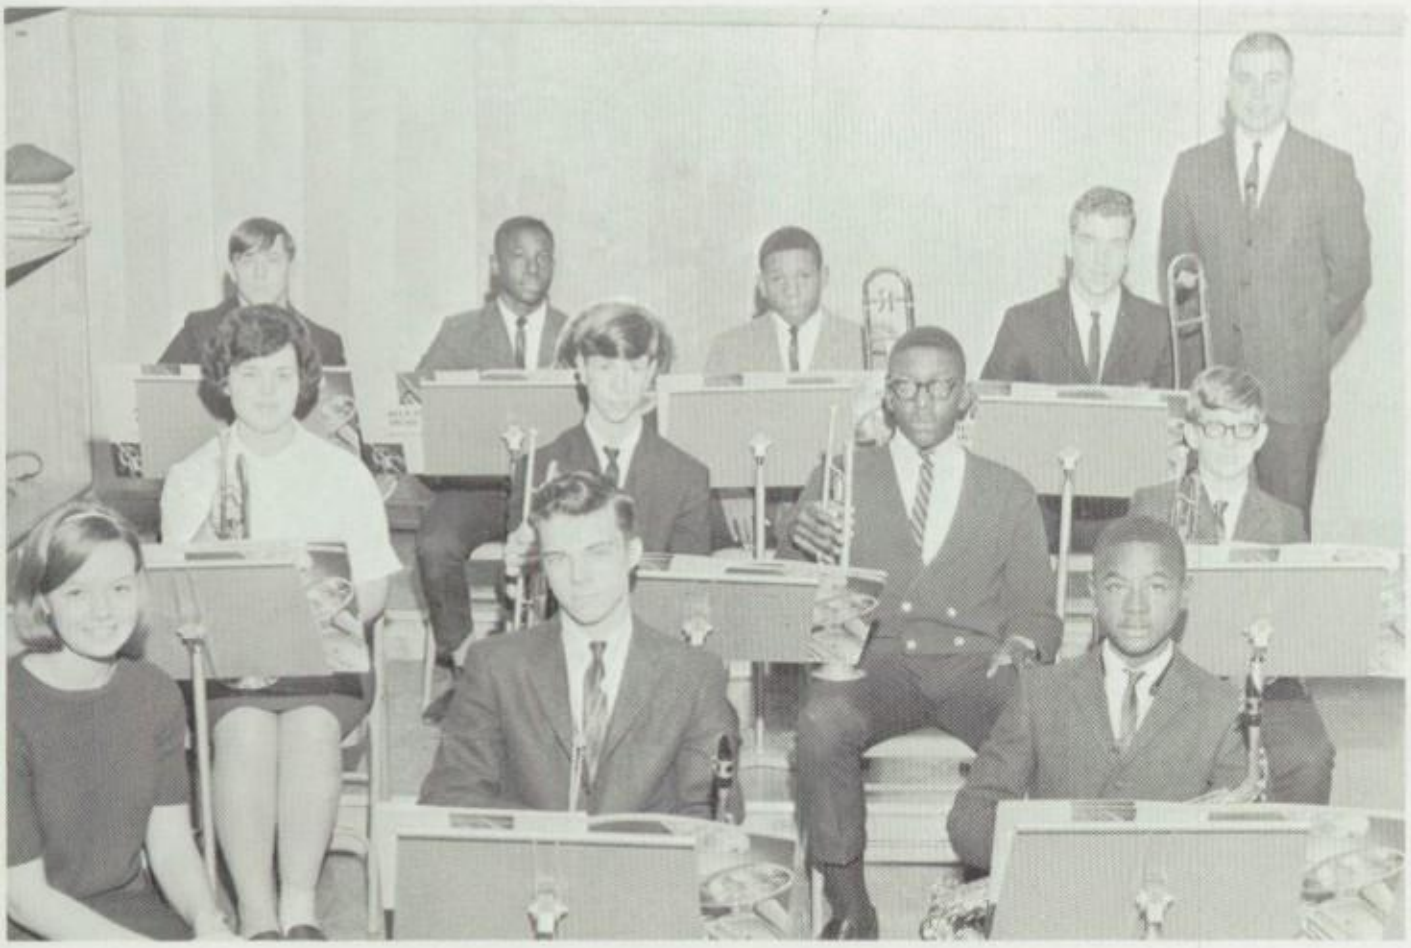
DANCE BAND



Band prepares for concert.

MAJORETTES

Since September 16, Dale Lednum, Chris Cooper, Paulette Trice, Hattie Messick, Linda Wright, and Brenda Gadow have brought to the football fans a variety of performances at all home games.

Practices were sometimes frantic and rushed, but the girls always tried to give the spectators an entertaining exhibition of twirls combined with varied routines. Arranging the program themselves, and guided by captain Dale Lednum, they have tried to correlate their movements with the music provided by the band.

Majorettes in full dress uniform.

SENIOR GLEE CLUB

The Senior Glee Club, consisting mainly of juniors and seniors, has made great progress this year under the direction of Miss Edna Carter. The officers for the year are: President-Gail Brummell, Vice President-Gina Detweiler, Secretary-Diann Russell, and Treasurer-Kay Davis.

One of this group's greatest achievements was the performance of the "Messiah", at the December PTA meeting, where they were joined by the Junior Glee Club. The Glee Club has also performed at the school's Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies.

In the spring they are planning to present Gilbert and Sullivan's play, THE MIKADO, in conjunction with the Speech and Dramatics class.

Mrs. Carter

MARCHING BAND

In the fall the forty-five piece band marches at all football games at pre-games and half time.

As soon as football season is over, the Concert Band is formed. For the rest of the year this group gives concerts at both Federalsburg and Preston Schools, performs in the District Festival where they compete with other bands, and will play in the "Mikado".

The members are offered many extra-curricular activities such as; the Dance Band, tryouts for the All State and All-Shore Bands, and a chance to compete for first chair in your particular instrument.

The students of C.R.H.S. elect Brenda Patrick their Homecoming Queen for 1966-'67.

Varsity football players nominate Ruth Tilghman, Darlene Johns, Brenda Patrick, and Dale Lednum for the high honor.

During half-time, Friday night, October 28, the Queen and her court were presented to the football spectators. Boosted by a pep rally that afternoon, C.R.H.S. Spirit remained alive throughout that hard-fought game.

Escorted by Bill Stuart, Queen Brenda is crowned by past Queen, Faye Elms.
